Permanent Residents

• Carry your permanent resident card (green card) with you at all times. Keep a copy of your permanent resident card (green card) in a safe place in your home.

Non-Immigrant People Legally in the Country

• Carry your EAD, your I-94 card, passport with entry stamp, or other proof of your legal status with you. Carry the original and keep a copy in a safe place in your home.

Naturalized U.S. Citizens with a Foreign Accent

• Carry your passport or a photocopy of your naturalization certificate with you. Keep a copy in a safe place in your home. These documents must be notarized.

Undocumented Immigrants Who Have Been in the Country for More Than Two Years

Always carry evidence that you have been in the country for at least two continuous years. Examples:

- Utility bills (electricity, water, etc.) with your name and dated at least two years ago.
- Copy of the birth certificates of your children born in the United States.
- Correspondence you have received by mail.
- · School records in the United States.
- Copies of invoices.
- Medical or pharmaceutical records.

Undocumented Immigrants Who Have Been in the Country for Less Than Two Years

 Make a plan with your loved ones about what to do in the event that you do not return home one day. For example, designate someone to pick up the children from daycare.

Know Your Rights

You have the right to...

Remain silent

- You can refuse to speak with an ICE agent. You do not have to answer any questions, especially about your place of birth, immigration status, or how you entered the United States.
- Say that you want to remain silent until you speak with a lawyer.

You have the right to refuse to sign any document before speaking with a lawyer.

Do not sign anything. Signing could waive your right to speak with a lawyer or your right to a hearing before an immigration judge. This could result in your immediate deportation without a hearing.

You have the right to speak with a lawyer and the right to make a phone call.

• Memorize the phone number of a friend or relative, as you may not have access to your cellphone. Also, memorize the phone number of a legal service provider.

You have the right to demand a warrant before opening the door.

Do not open the door to ICE without a signed warrant from a judge that specifically and correctly includes your name and the address of the person they are looking for. If they say they have one, do not open the door to let them show it to you. Ask them to slide it under the door or show it through the window.

You have the right to refuse to show any documents.

 Do not show documents issued by another country to an ICE officer, such as a consular ID card or a passport from your country of birth. Never present false documents.

Know Your Rights

Recommendations in case of encounter with ICE

Stay calm and do not flee (whether on foot or in your vehicle)

• If you flee, ICE or the police could use this against you.

Take photos and/or videos if you feel safe doing so.

Especially if ICE violates your rights and/or if a loved one has been detained. It may be helpful to assign a family member who feels comfortable doing this and who is a U.S. citizen.

- Any document they provide you (without signing it)
- Any damage caused to your property
- Information about the agents such as their name and/or badge number
- Evidence of illegal entry into your home or harassment could be useful in court.

Judicial Order vs. ICE Administrative Document

If law enforcement, including Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), knocks on your door, DO NOT open the door. First, ask them to slide a judicial order under the door. Make sure the address and information on the judicial order are correct and that the order is being presented within the specified time frame.

What is a judicial order?

- A judicial order is an official order issued by a court and signed by a judge or magistrate. It authorizes a search of private property, a seizure, or an arrest based on probable cause that a crime is being or has been committed.
- Key features of a judicial order::
  - Specifies the exact address to be searched
  - Indicates the time period within which the search must be conducted
  - Clearly describes the place or person to be searched, and the items to be seized
  - Issued by a court and signed by a judge or magistrate

Below is an example of a judicial order.

Example of a Judicial Warrant

Know Your Rights

Know Your Rights If law enforcement, including ICE, presents you with any document that is not a judicial order signed by a judge, you are not obligated to open the door.

This includes cases where law enforcement or ICE presents an ICE administrative document they call an "ICE order."

What is an ICE Administrative Order?

- An ICE administrative order is a document issued by a federal agency such as the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) or Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), which supposedly documents their authority to arrest a person suspected of violating immigration laws.
  - These administrative documents are not signed by a neutral magistrate or judge, but by an immigration officer such as an ICE agent or an immigration judge.

An ICE administrative order is NOT a judicial order.

• ICE administrative orders do not grant ICE officers the authority to enter a place where there is a reasonable expectation of privacy without consent.

If this happens:

- Clearly state that you do not consent to them entering, but do not physically resist.
- If ICE officers have already entered, ask them to leave and state that you do not consent to a search.

Below is an example of an ICE administrative order, which DOES NOT authorize agents to enter your home.

Example of administrative warrant:

Right to an Interpreter

What are language access rights?

Having access to a qualified interpreter is part of a federal law. This means that all organizations receiving federal funds, directly or indirectly, are required to provide qualified interpreters during processes or services. Additionally, any written documentation must be translated by a professional translator.
